APRIL 9, 2025 | 11:00 AM
COUNTRY NEIGHBOR
39 S MAPLE ST, ORWELL

This year, the VSC will provide an Easter holiday distribution. We plan to conduct two distributions this year, so there will be a fixed amount for each, moving forward.

We are allotting 1,250 vouchers to our veteran community on a first come, first serve basis. The value of each voucher will be $40.

Veterans, or widows of veterans may stop by the VSC during our regular business hours beginning at 8 a.m. on Monday, April 7 and ending at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 11 to secure their voucher. Each family is eligible to receive one voucher per veteran in their household. The vouchers will expire on Sunday, April 20, 2025.

Vouchers may be redeemed at the Saybrook and Geneva Giant Eagles. You may use yours to purchase any food items that will assist with your holiday. Prohibited items for purchase are alcohol, tobacco, pet foods, and any non-food item. Remember, you just have that week in April to get your voucher, so block out some time and come by the office!

Veterans MUST provide DD214 showing a character of discharge that is Honorable or Under Honorable Conditions and MUST be current Ashtabula County Residents to receive this voucher. The program is open to widows of veterans as well. If your service has been previously verified, or you have an ID Card from the VSC, you are eligible for this program.

BUSINESS SEMINAR SERIES: HOLISTIC LIFE PLANNING

As a Certified Holistic Financial Coach through Columbia University, and a life-long student of personal and professional development, Chad Vavpetic's workshop teaches attendees how and why to design their personal and professional lives around core values, seek "harmony" in the major areas of life (rather than pursuing the elusive "balance"), and develop "synergy" in their daily activities.
